Course OBJECTIVES

Upon completing this course, students will understand how:

- EtaPRO can meet their condition and performance monitoring needs.
- VirtualPlant™ is used with EtaPRO to model expected plant performance, both online and offline.
- VirtualPlant models are used to run parametric studies to examine the effect of changing plant conditions.
- EtaPRO advanced pattern recognition (APR) Concerns Viewer is used to address asset points that indicate abnormal behavior.
- EtaPRO data points are added, edited, or deleted.
- EPTrendSetter™ is used to benchmark plant performance.
- EPReporter™ is used to schedule custom reports built in Microsoft® Excel.
- EPLog™ is set up to create custom operations and maintenance logs.
- EPAlert™ is used to create event- or time-based alerts to provide notification of a specific event based on user-defined criteria.
- Screen Builder is used to create and modify custom screens.
- Diagnostic Builder is used to create and modify diagnostic flowchart to run both online and offline.
- EtaPRO configuration settings are modified on the Server and the Client.
- EtaPRO uses the historian and how compression affects data.
- Routine system back-ups of the databases are performed and what information is stored in those databases.
- Security is configured for EtaPRO applications.
- EtaPRO Server and Client applications are installed and upgraded.
